

ASUC grant applications now available online

Berkeley, CA, January 31, 2010 – ASUC Grants is now accepting grant applications for the Spring semester. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until all funds for the 2009-2010 academic year are depleted, with the final application deadline being April 16, 2010.

The ASUC provides grants to students and organizations pursuing independent work or collaborative projects. Grants are distributed through specific funds, each targeted towards a specific project. The Academic Opportunity Fund awards grants for academic travel deemed valuable as an educational experience beyond the classroom. The Intellectual Community Fund provides funding for collaborative events planned for and by Cal students. The Educational Enhancement Fund supports DeCal courses and independent student-initiated courses at UC Berkeley. The Multicultural Fund provides monetary support to events introducing the campus to a culture. Finally, the Public Service Award is granted to increase and facilitate public service efforts targeted towards communities outside of the UC Berkeley campus.

All applications must be submitted at least one week before an event, and no exceptions will be made for late applications. Interested applicants must submit their applications online at <http://callink.berkeley.edu>.

For more information on ASUC Grants, please visit <http://www.asuc.org/newsite/grants/>.

###

For questions, interview requests, or more information, please contact:

Yousur Alhlou

mct@asuc.org | yahlou@gmail.com

Intern, Marketing & Communications

ASUC, Office of the President, 2009-10

About the ASUC

The Associated Students of the University of California (ASUC) are the elected representatives of the UC Berkeley student body. As the collective voice of the students, the ASUC builds student power through leadership development, and through grassroots campaigns and coalitions, the ASUC fights to hold the University,

City, State and Nation accountable to student needs. Please visit the ASUC website at <http://www.asuc.org>.